It's a rare blend: luxury accommodation with a fully personalised retreat experience, just for your group. No strangers. No rigid schedules. Just your own space, your own pace, and our full attention – including a private chef to prepare nourishing, seasonal meals throughout your stay.

You'll be given your own retreat planner to help shape a beautiful experience – from pampering therapies and sound baths to float therapy, wild dips, massage, and plenty of time to relax, laugh, and celebrate what matters most.

This is your bridal retreat, your way. And we're here to make it unforgettable.

REVIEWS

“I hosted my bridal shower at Tranquil Water Retreat and couldn't have chosen a better place! The team was incredibly responsive and accommodating from start to finish, making the whole planning process seamless. A big shout out to Dan! The wellness therapists and instructors were not only professional but also genuinely kind. Everyone commented on how relaxing and high-quality the sessions were. The venue itself is stunning. It's surrounded by nature, peaceful, and designed to help you truly disconnect, relax, and rejuvenate. It created the perfect setting for such a special occasion.

I'd highly recommend it to anyone considering and would love to go back again myself!” . - Vasudha

“We booked this property for a relaxing hen and it was absolutely perfect! The set-up is really unique and created such a special atmosphere for the weekend. Everything was spotless on arrival, and the yoga session and instructor were a real highlight - so calming and tailored to us. The bride also had a massage which she loved. Location-wise, it's in a peaceful spot for downtime but still an easy drive into towns like Nottingham if you want to mix things up. Couldn't recommend more!” - Abbie

“Just back from a blissful weekend of healing. I've been to many retreats this one has topped them all. The sessions are amazing the food divine. Heaven on earth 🌎” - Lilly
